

Sketching & Scoff

Do come and join us for our

SUMMER ART COURSES at BOLEBROKE MILL

Beginners to all levels of ability and experience are welcome.

Due to the fabulous response to our first art course, we are pleased to announce plans for the next programme, 'Sketching and Scoff'. This will be a two day course run over two Saturdays, 6th & 13th August 2011. You may join us for either or both!

Charles Newington, one of Kent's most celebrated artists, is your tutor. He will share his passion and enthusiasm for painting in this delightful setting in the rural heart of East Sussex. It was the location where "Carrington" was made, a film about the Bloomsbury set, starring Emma Thompson and Jonathan Price.

(See the Bolebroke website 'gallery' www.theoldbarnatbolebrokemill.co.uk/gallery)

Charles will demonstrate and guide you through the practice of drawing, composition, and techniques in watercolour and other media, working with you individually to realise and develop your own particular creative skills and direction.

Our hosts Wendy and David Cooper will provide refreshments, lunch and hospitality. If you would like to stay at Bolebroke Mill and make a whole weekend of it, please contact Wendy.

Your day begins at 10am with a short introduction by Charles.

Refreshments served throughout the day at your easel.

Lunch is vegetarian, locally sourced and home made including, wine, dessert, fresh coffee or tea.

5.00pm The day ends.

£65 per person, per day, all inclusive of the above, or £120 for the two days.

For further information or queries and to receive details of materials and equipment you may need to bring, talk to Charles. Numbers are limited, so please register your interest now to ensure a place.
